COLOMBIAN CIGARS

Dictador rum barrels are used to age the wrapper leaves.

Barrel ageing premium cigar tobacco imparts the spirit's flavours into the wrapper over time.

DICTADOR CIGARS COLLECTION

DICTADOR CIGARS are manufactured with the closest attention to quality and taste to ensure the best smoking experience for cigar connoisseurs. In the production process, our Dictador rum barrels are used to age the wrapper leaves. Barrel ageing premium cigar tobacco imparts the spirit's flavours into the wrapper over time. After six months, flavour changes are subtle but noticeable. After fermentation, most tobacco is baled and aged by manufacturers in climate-controlled warehouses. By ageing tobacco leaves in our barrels, Dictador is adding yet another small step to the laborious cigar-making process, which we believe is well worth it.

Pavo Real

Premium Cigars

METHOD

This mild to medium-bodied cigar is matched perfectly with Dictador barrels. This process imparts hints of coffee, mint and berries to the cigar. Blending this Dominican leaf wrapper, and rich Nicaraguan leaf from the Jalapa Valley delivers a cigar rich in flavour with a hint of spice. Hints of soft spice and cedar gently fill the palate, offering a perfect balance between strength and complexity.

_ Perfect match with Dictador 12YO & 20YO Rums.

XO 1913

Premium Cigars

METHOD

The Dictador XO cigar remains a highly guarded and secret blend, but is finished with a silky smooth Habano wrapper. With pre-light notes such as white pepper, hay, sweet cocoa and honey, the cigar remains almost fleeting throughout with occasional notes of sweetness and spice. A medium to full-bodied cigar, the velvety texture of this smoke lends itself to being perfectly matched with Dictador Fine & Rare Rums Collection.
